CAROLINA CHRISTIAN

THE TORCH
1987-1988

Dedication

For her unselfish love and devotion, this year's annual is dedicated to Mrs. Gail Clark. This is her fifth year at Carolina, and she enjoys teaching and spreading the Gospel.

Mrs. Clark graduated from Harding High School and U.N.C. Charlotte with a Bachelor of Science degree in math.

She is married to Dennis J. Clark and has three daughters — Melissa, who is 14 years old, Amanda, 10, and Khristin, 6.

Her family has attended Victory Word Fellowship Church at Matthews. She loves all of her students and is an inspiration to the school.

Last Will & Testament

I Johnna Bishop, do hereby devise and bequeath my ability to come to school late everyday to anybody who has to be here before 8:15. I leave my manager/scorekeeper positions to anybody not quite qualified to play the actual sports! I leave my cuteness and sweetness to anyone who wishes to be as cute and sweet as me! To Scott Mosley, my best friend in the world, I leave my locker with all the Bon Jovi pictures included. I also leave him with the hopes of getting out of the senior class a little bit easier than I did! To Markk Wallace, I leave the ability to say "We're just friends!" to anybody that asks about our so-called "relationship". You know the rest Markk! I'll see you October 7, 1999! I also leave both of them all my love and very best wishes for the future. To Mrs. Streetman, I leave my thanks and appreciation because she's the only teacher that lets me go to the bathroom three times in one class! To Mrs. Clark, I leave the fact that as soon as I get out of here, I'm going to wear the shortest mini-skirt I can get away with! To Brenda Sneed, I leave my fingernails (when they're long) just because she likes them so much. To the rest of the staff, thanks for putting up with all of my situations. To Mr. Bedwell thank you for playing Psychology on me! Last, but not least, to Mrs. Robinson, a very big influence on my life, thanks and lots of love.

I Heather Caldwell, do hereby devise and bequeath my legend and my historic feats and deeds to my baby sister, Ashley. To Danny Pruett, I leave my love, my hope for us to be together in the future, and the promise of "only a few more months!" To Shannon King, I leave my love, my ability to laugh at anything, a lot of stupid words (Nebechudnezzar), and the promise that I will always be here for her. To Lee Ann Rogers, I leave my ability to read Shannon's mind to laugh at anything (funny or not). To Dana Gentry, my future cousin-in-law, I leave my athletic ability. To Amy and Toby, I leave my hopes that they will be happy and stay together. To Melissa Clark, I leave my ability to get out of class and type memos. To Kristi Simpson and Kelli Hudson, I leave my authoritive and loud personality, because they are so quiet. I leave my ability to get along with all the teachers, except Mrs. Robinson, my second mama, to anyone who wants it. I leave my mini-skirts and tank tops to Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Robinson! I leave my nicknames "Hun" and "Pebbles" to no one because no one else is "Hun" and no one else can wear a ponytail like I can. To my parents, I leave my love, thanks, and respect for I would not have made it without them!

Last Will And Testament

I Kenny Clontz do hereby devise and bequeath my parking space to anyone who can get down there! To Sandra Boone I leave my driving ability. I leave my ability to get out of everybody's class except Mrs. Streetman's to Art Sneed. And, I leave my ability to complain about everything to Lee Ann Rogers. I leave my love for summer school to anyone who wants it! To Scott Tomlinson I leave my ability to talk fast. I leave my ability to get on Mrs. Streetman's nerves to Misty Morgan. I leave my love for the south to Mrs. Robinson. To Kelli Hudson (Shorty), I leave my love for Carolina Christian and faculty. To Joe Denson I leave the best of luck for the future! I leave my love and respect to Mr. Bedwell. I leave my place in the family planning class to Scott Mosley and Markk Wallace. And, last but not least, I leave my love for test driving cars to Mrs. Briggs!

I Will Huffman do hereby devise and bequeath to Dana, my love and soul, and hopes to stay together forever. I leave my athletic ability to whomever needs it. By the looks of it, everybody!

I Richard Jones, do hereby devise and bequeath my intellect and charm to Mrs. Robinson. I leave my ability to play baseball to Landon Massey. I leave my ability to turn in writing workshops on time to Teresa Boler. I leave my ability to get along with Mrs. Clark to Landon Massey. I leave my ability to have to excel in Mrs. Hunsucker's class to my brother. I leave my ability to have the guts to go on to analysis to Sabrina Stockton. I leave my position on the National Honor Society to Jerry Collins. I leave my smoothness and my haircut style to Bobby Johnson. I leave my style of dress to Markk Wallace, I leave my L Cool J collection to Scott Mosley, and I leave my Tarheel collection to Scott Lansford and Micheal Lewis. Last but not least, to all the teachers I leave my thanks and appreciation for the support they have given me for the three years I have been here.

I Jason Pentecost, do hereby devise and bequeath my T.V. and VCR to Joe Denson. I leave my ability to make new friends to any new kids that happen to come along. I leave my scouting and Order of the Arrow knowledge and ability to Albert Harris. I leave my ability to cut grass to Mrs. Robinson and my ability to play smashball and take pictures to Justice Inman! Last but not least, I leave my hairstyle and music preferance to the entire junior class!

I Bryan Smith do hereby devise and bequeath my ability to play basketball to Brad Couchman. I leave my ability to play baseball to the whole team because after Will and I leave, they will need it!

I Kermit Trice do hereby devise and bequeath my driving ability to John Brown. My ability to drive up the hill is left to anyone who wants it. I leave my ability to get out of class and my ability to play soccer to David Austin and also my ability to drive the tractor and bus. I leave my plumbing ability to all the girls that don't know the difference between the trash can and the toilet! I leave my love for Mrs. Robinson to anybody who will take it and my love for Mrs. Streetman to everybody.

I Dionne Tucker, do hereby devise and bequeath my singing ability to Senora Hunsucker, and to Sabrina Stockton my boldness and my "Just that kind of girl" attitude! I also leave my friends all my love, and to my teachers, thanks! I leave my love and appreciation to Mrs. Weathers for her kindness. It's been real, Ya'll! CHILL! I hate to thank!

Lanna Kwon

We are proud to be Lanna's parents. She is our precious and only child. At age three Lanna already read well. From the kindergarden to fifth grade, she has been a straight "A" student. She plays piano, violin and she loves classical ballet. We are proud and happy that you have decided to do this for Lanna.

Thank you very much,
Lanna's Parents

Special Thanks

Special Thanks

Mrs. Melba Mims for her assistance in tying this yearbook and to Lennie Austin for taking photographs during the year.

Extra special thanks to all the people who were so patient and longsuffering with me in finishing this annual.

Also, I appreciate my dearest and best friend Mrs. Pamela Michelle Whitted for her assistance in completing this annual.

Many thanks to all the wonderful and special students who have contributed to this annual. Thank you Annual Staff and may the Lord Jesus Christ bless you real special.

Love,
Veronica Weathers
